

DEFINITIONS

1. IDENTIFY: The ability to know, recognize, and say who someone is or what something is.
2. ADMIRAL: A high rank in the navy for commissioned officers ranked above the Vice-Admiral.
3. ADVANTAGE: The gain or benefit of doing something; a desirable quality that makes someone or something more likely to succeed or better.
4. BEGINNING: the starting point an event or situation begins; the first part of someone or something
5. USUALLY: To do something regularly or most of the time.
6. SWEET: Pleasing to the taste buds; to describe a likable and kind character; very attractive, lovely or good offer
7. ARCTIC: A very cold condition; relating to the North Pole or the regions around it.
8. ACCURACY: The ability to perform a task successfully without making any error or mistake in the process.
9. OUTRAGEOUS: Very surprising and unusual; a shocking and wrong act that causes anger; to go beyond what is usual
10. SLEEPINESS: To feel tired and about to fall asleep; lack of activity.
11. EXPIRE: The end of something or something; to no longer be valid after a while.
12. ACCESS: Permission to do, enter, and use something; freedom to do what you want.
13. JUDICIOUS: The ability to exercise or show good or sound judgment on something or somebody.

- 14. PERSUASIVE: The ability to make someone do something or believe something.
- 15. ADHESIVE: A substance capable of making things stick together; the tendency to stick to something.
- 16. CONVENTIONAL: Common or ordinary, beliefs accepted by most people because it has been around for a long time.
- 17. ARRANGED: To accuse someone of wrongdoing; to state the crime of an offender before a court headed by a Judge
- 18. RESPIRATION: The process of breathing in living things (inhaling and exhaling oxygen).
- 19. SURVEILLANCE: To keep a close eye or watch over someone or something especially for criminal offenses.
- 20. INAUDIBLE: Impossible or difficult to hear.
- 21. SARCASTIC: Ability to use words to mean the opposite of what you say; using or showing sarcasm.
- 22. OMINOUS: The feeling or suggestion that someone had will happen in the future.
- 23. ACCORD: To agree or give special status to someone or something
- 24. UNNATURAL: Not normal or real; different from how it is supposed to be in a way that is wrong or disturbing
- 25. PRESCRIBE: To officially tell someone what to use as a treatment or remedy.
- 26. IMPROVEMENT: The act of making someone or something better than you meet it; the quality of becoming better than you were; a change usually positive that makes something more valuable or better
- 27. ALLERGIC: Reacting negatively (body reactions) to something that others do not react to; having a strong feeling of not liking something.

28. PREVENTION: The act of stopping something bad from happening; the act of hindering someone or something.

29. DROWNED: To die by staying underwater for too long; to put something fully into a body of water.

30. DISPOSABLE: To be used only a few or several times and thrown away.

31. PERSPIRE: To produce liquid from your skin when you are nervous or hot

32. MIRACLE: An extraordinary feat or achievement that is amazing and hard to believe

33. BASICALLY: To do or say something in a simple way